HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
AND
Hoofland's German Tonic.
The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts,) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,
Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.
Those preferring a Medicine free from Alchoholic admixture, will use
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.
Those who have no objection to the combination of the bitters, as stated, will use
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.
They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.
The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:
Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.
The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigation and inquiries possesses true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit these well known remedies—
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,
Prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.
Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.
These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.
DEBILITY,
Resulting from any Cause whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, &c.
There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eye, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.
PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,
And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.
NOTICE.
It is a well established fact that fully one half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; they are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.
To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.
WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN,
Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.
Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.
TESTIMONIALS.
HON. GEORGE W. WOODWARD,
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes:
Philadelphia, March 18, 1767.
"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action.
Yours, truly, GEO. W. WOODWARD."
HON. JAMES THOMPSON,
Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
Philadelphia, April 28, 1866.
"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON."
FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,
Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.
Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.
Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates St.
FROM REV. E. D. FENDALL.
Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia.
I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver.
Yours truly, E. D. FENDALL.

Our Correspondence.

SPRUCE CREEK, Sept. 5, 1868.

WM. LEWIS, EDITOR GLOBE:—As I have just returned from a trip to the Iron Mountain, Pilot Knob, and other parts of Missouri, and thinking that a brief account of what I saw and heard might be interesting to you and your readers, I offer you the following:

I left St. Louis on the Iron Mountain Railroad, which extends to the Pilot Knob, five and a half miles south of the mountain. The Knob is as the name indicates, a round up-heaving, I think some higher than the river hills in Juniata township opposite Huntingdon, and composed, as far as known, almost entirely of Iron Ore. There are two charcoal blast furnaces at the north foot of the Knob; the ore is mined about two-thirds of way up the Knob and let down by cars on an inclined plain. I went up in a return car to where they were mining, which is quarrying and blasting the rocks of Iron ore, having little or no earthly matter or other substance amongst them. From there I walked up to the top of the Knob to get a view of the country, which is very fine. I had not been there long until a lady and gentleman came up—the lady was a native and acquainted with the country which was a great acquisition to me. Ironton, a decent sized village near the south foot with a range of hills extending back, and small valleys of cultivatable land interspersed. Shepherd Mountain near on the west which is a hill of Magnetic Iron Ore that they used to work in bloomeries that are not in operation now. Seeing an earth work in the valley of Shepherd Mountain I inquired what that was. The lady said "that is where the federals had an encampment and breastworks during the war." Said she, laughing, "I cannot help but laugh when I think how the confederates chased the federals and scalliwaggers out of that, one morning. How they did skedaddle nearly to St. Louis before they were reinforced." "Why, said I, "you must be a confederate if it pleased you to see the federals forced back." "That is what I am," said the lady, "or a rebel, if you choose to call us so." "Then I suppose," said I, "you are in favor of Grant for President." "Not a bit of it," said she, "none but scalliwaggers, carpet baggers, will vote for Grant in the South. Seymour is our man." I thought the gentleman with her was a stranger in the country like myself; he said very little and I thought was not in harmony with the lady in politics. My time was about out, as I returned with the train to the iron mountain, which would not be called a mountain in this country; it is a regular swell of ground of about the elevation of the grave yard hill at Huntingdon, covers about six hundred acres. You could ride or drive nearly all over it, partly covered with a thin growth of scrub bushes and a few scrubby trees; the surface is lump ore with rocks of iron ore putting up through in places. There are two charcoal furnaces in operation on the west side near the railroad, one working with hot blast, making about twenty tons in twenty-four hours; the other with cold blast and making from twelve to fourteen tons. They were mining and shipping about forty car loads of ten tons each per day, some to other furnaces along the line of road, but mostly to the Mississippi river at Carondelet and St. Louis. I saw where they were mining that the surface lump ore from three to five deep had but little clay in it, being washed down by rains—below that to the iron rock varying in thickness, there is a good deal of ochre clay—in the deep mines it is hard rock mining. It looks as if there was iron ore enough to last for ages. Between that and St. Louis there is lead, copper, and they say tin; a rough hilly country with few springs. Some good looking farms with large stock yards, and orchards loaded with apples and peaches, looking thrifty. I then went by the South Pacific Railway to Rolla—113 miles southwest from St. Louis. There are more Union men here. As this place was in possession of the Union army during the war the soldiers have cut the timber for miles round the town, a hilly country from Franklin; here, some mineral lead and iron. At St. James Station there is a good deal of nice looking hematite ore shipped—it is mined about a mile distant on land of James, formerly Massey & James, who have iron works six miles south on the Morrimec. I returned to Franklin and went up the Missouri River Railway to Tipton, 162 miles west of St. Louis. From there, south to Versailles in a hack. This is an open prairie, good farming country. The corn crop is very much shortened by drouth. The wheat crop in Illinois and Missouri has been generally better the last harvest than for years. There is a good proportion of secesh here and I find it as the lady on Pilot Knob said, that not a rebel or rebel sympathiser will vote for Grant. On asking them what they expected of Seymour more than Grant, they said that Seymour is pledged to place them in power as they ought to be, as they are the superior class, and not have them rode over by scalliwaggers and carpet baggers, or any other vile name they can think to call a Union man, and if they get into power they will make them lay low or leave the country. But as you cannot elect Seymour without the aid of the North how do you expect to get that, we asked. "Our leaders there," they said, "are the outs and are as an anxious to be the ins as we are, and those expectants and their friends are a large influential number, and with the bounty jumpers, draft resisters, deserters, copperheads, and the mass that will be led by the name of Democrat and driven by the fear of negro equality, will be a number so large that with its influence we are informed there is but little doubt of success." "I have, no doubt," we replied, "as to the truthfulness of your information as to the class and kind of support you are to get, from the North. But I think in a land of free schools, free thought, free speech, and free press, you do it great injustice to suppose or expect a majority of that class existing in it, and if you really think so you will be badly disappointed when you get the returns of the election. Yours, &c.,"

JOHN S. ISETT.

Political Chip Basket.

Zebulon B. Vance was a rebel General, and a rebel Governor of North Carolina. Naturally enough he was a prominent member of the National Democratic Convention which nominated Seymour and Blair. This Vance expects the "lost cause" to triumph through the election of his nominees. Just before a battle for the success of the "cause," Vance once urged his troops to "pile hell so full of Yankees that their feet would stick out of the windows."

The New York Times has a letter from Indiana, giving at full length an account of the political canvass of the State. The writer says that "the wholesale defection of all the leading Conservative Republicans, who, two years ago, supported the Democratic ticket, created last week a perfect panic among the Democratic leaders of Indiana." The Democrats expected these men to remain with them. They are also deserted by several old-line Democrats, who cannot support Seymour, Blair and revolution. The result is to place the State beyond doubt.

The Second Adventists are now holding a meeting in Jaynesville, Wis., and have concluded that the end of all things earthly will take place on the first of next October. The other day the preacher was very much annoyed by a Republican and Democrat on the outskirts of the meeting, discussing as to who would be the next President. The preacher approached them and said: "My dear friends, you are exciting yourselves unnecessarily and wasting precious time in speculating as to the future President of the United States, for before an earthly election takes place our blessed Lord will be President everywhere." "I'll bet you twenty-five dollars," said the Democrat, "he can't carry Kentucky."

"When a ticket is presented to me selected by the leaders of the rebellion, and supported by every man in the South who bore arms against the country, and by every man in the North whose sympathies were with them," said a War Democrat a few days since, "it is time that I should look for other company. I rejoiced when the rebellion went down under the blows of Grant," he continued, "and do not intend by my vote now to undo what was then accomplished. As a consistent and true man, I am bound to give him my vote for President." This brief speech expresses the sentiments of thousands who, as ex-Senator Carlile says, looked to the New York Convention for a ticket that would command their support.

Speaking of General Grant and Mr. Colfax, in his speech delivered at Bangor, Maine, recently, Mr. Pendleton used the following language: "I shall not disparage the ability or character of our opponents. I would not if I could pluck one leaf from the laurels of Gen. Grant. Whatever may be his ability as a soldier he has stood the test of success, and, so far as I have known, he has borne himself with moderation and magnanimity in his high office. I have known Mr. Colfax well for many years. I have seen him in possession of great power. He is an amiable and estimable gentleman, and would perform with dignity the duties of the high office to which he aspires."

David B. Winder, who served in the North Iowa cavalry to the end of the war, and afterwards married and permanently settled in Arkansas, notifies the editors of the Muscatine (Iowa) Journal to discontinue sending that paper to him; assigning as his reason, that to continue to receive a Republican paper would endanger his life.—He says there is nothing talked of there but war, and desires to know if such is the case at the North. The fact is that the Democratic platform and Frank Blair's revolutionary letter have encouraged the rebel malcontents to believe that if Seymour is elected there will be another war, the result of which will be the overturning of the existing loyal governments at the South, and the full restoration of excluded traitors to supreme power.

☞The Journal of Commerce, the oldest Democratic paper in New York, reviews the Democratic platform thus:

"This is out and out repudiation of a solemn obligation, as we understand it to pay all the bonded debt in gold. On the question of repudiation the Democrats are boldly committed to the baser alternative, and will reach the main advantage where this heresy is fondly cherished. There is no excuse for such a proposition. It is both wicked and disgraceful. The authors know very well that the money was borrowed with the express understanding that it was to be paid in coin, and that anything short of this is a repudiation of a solemn covenant. Gov. Seymour has always warmly insisted on the obligation to pay the bonds in gold. The platform is the very opposite to his well-known views. How the two are to be reconciled it is not for us to decide."

☞"Let us have peace."—Grant

The Latest Calumny.

From the New York Evening Post.

The very small work of inventing personal slanders against the foremost soldier of the republic, into which some Democratic papers seem to think they are forced by their desperate prospects, is carried on by a few of them as if they liked it; and to all who love their country and are proud of its splendid names is one of the most painful features of the political canvass. The World of this city seems to take the lead in this peculiar line, but is sharply followed up, and even with improvements, by many country journals.

The last device of partisan malice is to represent General Grant as cruel.—It is asserted that he was regardless of the brutal tortures inflicted on our soldiers by the present leaders of the Democratic party in the Southern States, and refused to exchange prisoners with them, man for man, except on unreasonable conditions. From this assumption the World infers that all the anguish of starvation, exposure, slow disease, and lingering death of mind and body, to which leading Southern Democrats subjected thousands of patriot soldiers at Andersonville, Charleston and Richmond, are to be charged solely to the General of our armies.

If there is any one feature of Gen. Grant's character so familiar to this nation that partisan passion cannot obscure it, it is his distinguished humanity. In every stage of his career he has been noted for that tender sympathy with suffering, which joins with valor and skill to form the triple star of a great soldier's glory! The soldiers who were rescued by his triumphs from their living graves in the Libby at Andersonville, have told their story to the world; and all men now know, that although the men who had followed Grant, when they were lingering on the brink of death, and hoping for it as a deliverance, might doubt of their own rescue, might even doubt of their country's cause, they never doubted of their great commander's heart. And to them might safely be left the answer to this change.

But there are other facts, equally well known, which come forward in every memory to refute the slander. We print elsewhere the account given by General Meredith, one of our commissioners for the exchange of prisoners, showing exactly why the exchanges were so much interrupted. The notorious fact is that the Rebel Government systematically subjected prisoners of war to bad treatment as a matter of policy. By torturing the prisoners they thought to disgust their Northern friends with the war; as well as to destroy Union men. By giving them food of less quantity and meaner quality than is necessary to sustain a healthy life, they saved their own stores and prolonged their resistance. Cut their main object was to force us to an exchange of prisoners on their own terms.

Our soldiers were of two classes, white and black. The Rebels would exchange the whitemen if they could retain the blacks to murder them The government refused to permit this. The rebels claimed that the whites were prisoners of war; but the blacks were traitors and spies. They would give up only the former, reserving the latter to be dealt with according to their own bloody laws against negro revolt. Neither would Mr. Lincoln nor Gen. Grant acknowledge this distinction; nor yield up any portion of the defenders of the Union, as out of the protection of the flag they fought for.—This was the first difficulty; and under all the complications the question afterwards assumed, this remained essentially the difficulty in exchanging.

Suppose it to be true, as some of the leading Democrats who were then prominent in torturing our soldiers now claim, that towards the close of the war they were eager to waive that point for a time and to exchange all prisoners, man for man, what does it show? Merely that the situation had changed, so that they clearly saw that if an exchange could be effected they could prolong the war, but that without it they must speedily fail.

The rebel armies were now in a state of siege. Fighting behind vast fortifications, which could easily be defended against triple numbers, their great want was men. The grand strategy of General Grant and the heroic fighting of his armies had so reduced the rebel forces that they could no longer effectively man their entrenchments. Under these circumstances, one able soldier being worth to the besieged as much as three to the assailants, they were willing to give man for man. They were willing to carry forward to the front the faint and dying victims of their torture houses, and exchange them for as many stalwart, well-fed rebel prisoners. Under all the pressure of the thousands who could not understand why their friends should not be delivered at any cost, our government took the responsibility of refusing.

If this decision was made by Gen. Grant, it is one for which the country will honor him forever. It was a far-sighted humanity, a higher charity than a pitiful sentimentalism can understand; but a rugged and noble charity, which saved the lives of scores of thousands. It cut short the war.—It defied the misrepresentations of enemies on both sides of the camp, and assumed the responsibility of leaving our innocent friends to suffer a short time in rebel prisons, in order that the nation might be saved. Had Grant been weak enough to yield at that time and yet strong enough to induce the whole administration to yield with him, the great day of Appomattox Court House might have been delayed a year, or forever.

But the assurance with which the murderers of our soldiers now charge their own crimes upon General Grant, on the pretense that he might have rescued his friends from their hands a little sooner, is surely without a parallel. That Robert Ould, Confederate agent for the exchange of prisoners, should now be summoned a witness against the humanity of the Union leader, is something at which one knows not whether to laugh or to be indignant. But no laughter can do justice to its absurdity; no indignation to its infinite meanness. The Southern leaders of the Democratic party will do well, as speedily as possible, to turn their attention, and, if they can, the attention of the nation, to something else than the inhuman torments they inflicted on brave and honorable foes during the war; for there is something in the memory of these things that wakes the old spirit of 1861 and 1865, and gives to the political canvass much more of the aspect of the late war, in its character and in its probable close, than can well be agreeable to themselves.

The Counter Reaction.

From the New York Herald.

We are on the eve of a heated and excited political campaign. The nomination of Horatio Seymour for President of the United States by the Democratic Convention is an avowal of the determination of the Democracy to renounce none of their old heresies and prejudices, but to fight out the battle of the next election upon the issues embraced in the contests of the past six or seven years. The popular demand for and obliteration of all the old political lines, and a hearty union of the conservative elements against radical misrule have been disregarded; the Democratic party has withdrawn itself within its own lines, and nothing is left to the people but to choose between the old sympathizers with secession and the men who have stood true to the Union and fought out the war against rebellion to a successful termination. Under these circumstances there can be no question that the reaction which manifested itself last year in several of the Northern States, and especially in New York, against the revolutionary policy of Congress, will receive a serious check, and that, despite the heated appeals of party organs, the people of the Union will unite in electing to the chief office of the republic the General who three years ago led their armies to victory over the Confederate forces rather than the man who in the darkest hour of the country's peril denounced the war for the Union as a failure.

So far as the State of New York is concerned we have no doubt that her fifty thousand majority cast last year for the Democratic ticket will be entirely wiped out next November, and that the State will go about the same number the other way. It is possible that in the several Congressional districts where sound conservative men are nominated the vote may be cast against the radicals; but there can be no question that the people will show at the ballot box that they have not forgotten the lessons of the war, and that they are not prepared to stultify themselves by refusing civil honors to the General who led their armies to victory, and bestowing them upon the peace politician who rendered himself notorious above all his confreres by the ingenuity and consistency with which he denounced war as failure. Indeed, it is more than probable that the nomination of Seymour forced upon New York by the disappointed and defeated Democracy of the Western States, may prove the means of bringing about an entire political revolution in our local as well as our State politics. The large majority by which General Grant will carry the State next November will be likely to take with it nearly all the Assembly districts, thus giving the Legislature in both branches, as well as the State Executive, to the Republicans.

☞The National Union, a Cincinnati journal, hitherto independent in politics, has raised the standard of Grant and Colfax. It thus defines its position:

"We have endeavored, since we resurrected the National Union, to observe a strict impartiality in regard to political matters, but confess that we are unable longer to do so. We look upon the present campaign as only the war between the North and the South renewed. Rebel Generals assure us that the lost cause is triumphant in the ascendency of the Democracy. We opposed the South during the war, and we cannot affiliate with rebels now who declare they are only laboring for the triumph of the South over the North and undo all that a four years' terrible war accomplished. We can never affiliate with such men as Brick Pomeroy and Wade Hampton, representative types of Northern traitors and Southern rebels. We do not fight with Frank Blair in his proposed revolutionary project. Henceforth we battle with Grant and Colfax, but shall always speak our mind freely concerning all political parties. We are neither hide-bound nor party-bound, but shall ever be found advocating those men and measures which we believe the best tend to promote the interests of the entire country."

☞General Logan says of the union of Northern Democrats and Southern rebels, that "we should have had this charming meeting before, had it not been for a few 'boys in blue' whose line from the Atlantic to the Mississippi kept these Northern and Southern Democrats apart, but the moment that line was withdrawn, the same old Democratic family comes together."

☞Grant, Colfax and Peace—Seymour, Blair and Strife.

☞Vote the whole county ticket—every man upon it is worthy a full party vote.

☞The rebel cry: "Hurrah for Seymour and Blair; we will get all we want, when they are elected."

☞Maine voted yesterday, Monday. Republican majority last year 11,614. Look for a Union Republican gain.

—The President has ordered U. S. troops to Tennessee to aid the civil authorities in the execution of the laws.

—The people everywhere are being aroused to the importance of defeating Wade Hampton's ticket, Seymour and Blair.

☞Seymour has written a letter in which he says he is in a "sea of troubles." He will sea-more before the election is over.

☞John Cessna, Esq., has been nominated for Congress by the Republicans of the Bedford district. Judge Kemmel is his opponent.

—There is a healthy reaction in favor of Grant and Colfax going on everywhere. Good Democrats can't swallow the dictation of Rebels.

☞If there is one thing more than another that should tend to the defeat of Seymour and Blair, it is the fact that they were both nominated by rebels.

☞Remember the October election is coming, when you will vote for Hartranft, Campbell, Morrell, Brown, Martin, and the whole Union Republican Ticket.

☞The Democrats North should have nothing to say about the "nigger" when the Democrats South take them by the hand and invite them to their meetings.

☞Every man work, and the work necessary to be done will be well done. Remember the Rebels were whipped only after a hard struggle. A united effort is again necessary to give Grant success.

☞The political Democratic jockeys are active. Good Grant men haven't time to swap horses now. A loss on the county ticket would be a loss to Grant and Colfax. Stand by the whole ticket—solid.

☞There is but one question for the people to decide, change or ruin, exclaims a Democratic journal. What kind of change shall we have, and to what ruin are we invited? A change from loyal rule to rebel rule—a change from bad to worse—a change from comparatively light taxation to a heavier one. A ruin of our national credit—a ruin of our national government—a ruin of the peace of loyal men everywhere. Can we afford to have such a change or such a ruin? But we will have such a change if Blair and Seymour are elected. All the rebel generals join in saying that we will, and no man can doubt but that we would. In the election of Seymour and Blair will follow a purely Confederate Government, a change from loyal Congressmen to rebel dictators, and a ruin of republican institutions. To save the national credit, and secure the blessings of peace and union to our posterity, Grant must be elected.

☞The Rebel General Forrest, in a conversation some two weeks ago, admitted that the Ku Klux Klan numbered over five hundred thousand able bodied men in the Southern States, organized and armed, and ready to obey the instructions of their leaders. With Seymour and Blair elected, an organization of five hundred thousand men, armed, revolution and anarchy could very soon be inaugurated. The Memphis (Tennessee) Avalanche, a representative journal of the rebel-Democracy, says: "Gen. Forrest's statements are remarkably correct.—Like an honest man he blurts out the truth." Voters, be not deceived by any Democratic hobby, but vote to place our government in the keeping of men who will hold in check Forrest's rebel organization. Rally under the banner of Grant and Colfax, and show a solid front at the October election for the whole ticket. United we stand, divided we fall.

REMEMBER AN IMPORTANT FACT.—Every loyal voter should remember that Seymour and Blair were nominated through the influence of Wade Hampton, Vallandigham and other leading Rebels and sympathizers—and they should also remember that Gen. Hancock was defeated to gratify the Rebel element of the Democratic party. If Seymour and Blair should be elected, they will most certainly call around them as advisers the men who were instrumental in securing them the nomination. The result would be, our Government would be under the control of the men who attempted to destroy it. Voters, rather trust Grant who saved us, than to place in power his enemies.

☞It should not be forgotten that the Democrats of Ohio have nominated Vallandigham for Congress, and the Democrats of Indiana have nominated Voorhees for the same honor. When the Democrats will nominate such men now, they would have no objections to see Wade Hampton, Forrest, and other deep rebels nominated for Congress if Seymour is elected. The example set by the Democrats in the North would be followed by the Democrats in the South, and we would have rebels and rebel sympathizers to rule the country. Loyal men, are you willing to see our Government ruled by such men. If not, then do all you can to defeat Seymour.

EVERY MAN TO HIS POST.—There is not a man in the county who cannot help to strengthen the Union Republican vote. No matter how little the influence a man may suppose he can exercise, that little is help, and if not sufficient to make a vote, it may stimulate another to action who can make a vote or influence a certain attendance at the polls of a voter who may feel careless about the result of the election. Go to work then, every Union Republican voter, and be sure that every Union Republican voter in the county attends the election and votes the full ticket.

☞Does the man who intends to vote the Democratic ticket consider that he thereby votes to place in power men who sympathise with the rebels? Does he reflect upon the importance of his vote at the coming elections? If he votes the Democratic ticket he votes to encourage and revive the same hopes that the rebels had when they were fighting the boys in blue, and trying to establish a Confederate Government. There is no disguising this fact.

☞On the 11th of March last, Horatio Seymour, in a speech delivered at Albany, speaking of the bonds, declared that "it is a mistake to suppose that they are mostly held by capitalists. They belong to the business men, the active and the laboring members of society. The destruction of these securities would make a wide spread ruin and distress which would reach into every workshop and every district, however humble." Democratic newspapers do not publish this speech of their chief.

☞"Push the debt and taxation upon public attention," says Seymour. The Democratic journals are doing that very thing effectually. But what does it all amount to, when the people know very well that with him and his compeer Blair, in power, we will have a rebel debt to pay for the South, and the farmers a tax upon their farms, with greenbacks to pay it with.

SOUTHERN VIEW OF THE VERMONT ELECTION.—The Richmond Dispatch says of the Vermont election:

If Maine shall show a gain, large or small, for the Radicals, Seymour may consider his chance of being a successor of George Washington as small indeed.

In another article on the same subject the Dispatch says:

The National Intelligencer of yesterday adduces figures to prove that whilst the Radicals have gained largely over their last year's majority in Vermont, the Democrats have gained more votes relatively than they. That is to say, whilst the Radicals gain 10,000 on 32,000—not quite a third—the Democrats gain nearly 4,000 on less than 12,000. This kind of figuring, we need hardly add, will not materially assist in the election of our candidates.

☞Some men are anxious to defeat Capt. Neely. They have asserted in several localities that he showed the white feather at Gettysburg, voted for McClellan and rejoiced when Lincoln was assassinated. Such assertions are base falsehoods. Capt. Neely was a Democrat when he went into the service of his country, but he immediately united with the Union party—was a brave soldier, voted for Lincoln, and has been a warm and active member of the party ever since. Captain Neely will be elected, and he will not disappoint his friends.

☞With Grant at the head of the nation what foreign power would dare to arouse our anger, and what Ku Kluxes in the South would dare to carry on its murders of Union men. Like in the days of Gen. Washington and Gen. Jackson, we would have peace in all our borders, and the world would see that we had a statesman and a soldier to keep their jealousy in proper bounds. Elect Grant and Colfax, and the Ku Kluxes will vanish; elect Seymour and Blair, and Union men will continue to be driven from the Southern States.

☞The Democrats were opposed to the greenback currency when it was necessary to carry on the war against the rebellion, and said they were worthless—now they want to issue three times the amount of the same kind of currency to pay the interest of bonds which the contract implies must be paid in gold. Bondholders, rich and poor, how do you like the Democratic financial policy?

☞The ratification meetings so frequently held by the Rebels (Ku Klux Klan) in many of the Southern States are seriously damaging the prospects of their candidates Seymour and Blair. Until the rebels learn to behave like loyal men, and tolerate a union sentiment in their midst, they will have a military power to rule over them.—Union men in those States must not be left to the mercy of the murderers.

☞It is very easy for good party men to help defeat candidates placed in nomination by their party. When you hear such inquiring 'muchly' after the charateer of just one of the candidates, be sure the questions are intended to injure the candidate. A true party man should not believe loose charges against a candidate unless he knows them to be true.

☞The first election in October the most important. If the Union Republican party fails to carry the State in October, it will certainly fail to carry it for Grant and Colfax in November. One Union Republican vote at home in October will count two at home in November. Remember voter, the influence of your single vote in October will be felt at the election in November.

☞If Seymour and Blair should be elected, the rebel element of the Democratic party would again go into power, and open repudiation of our war debt would follow. If paid at all, the debts contracted by the Rebel Confederacy would also be paid. Loyal voters, how would you like to be taxed to pay men for trying to destroy your Government?

—Seymour's troubles have begun. He says Wade Hampton's plain talk in the South is driving Democratic votes in the North to the support of Grant and his party. Just as it should be—Rebels should know that the people in the North have not yet forgotten their treason.

☞The time for doubt has passed. No man can be blind to the one plain issue, and that is. Shall the helm of our Government be guided by rebels? The election of Seymour and Blair would be a Rebel triumph. Loyal men, are you prepared to see the war carried into the North?

☞Every man wants peace. But let each voter ask himself the question if we can have peace when rebels are anxious for the election of Seymour and Blair. Grant says let us have peace, and he is the man we can trust to obtain it, just as we trusted him to finish up the rebellion.

☞The leaders, who controlled the Convention that nominated Seymour and Blair, are the same leaders who smashed up the Democratic party in 1860, and forced upon the country the late destructive war. Who can follow such leaders.

☞Grant finished up the war, and he now says "let us have peace." We can't have that peace until we have some man like Grant at the head to shut up the rebels.

☞It is conceded by all men, regardless of party politics, that Samuel T. Brown, Esq., is the best man nominated for the Legislature. Mr. Amos H. Martin of Juniata, must also be a very good and popular man—he always ran ahead of his party ticket in that county.

☞There was a grand outpouring of the people at the Union Republican meeting at Tyrone on Wednesday night last. Senator Sherman of Ohio was the speaker of the evening. The meeting reminded us of the "lively times" in '64.

—This country needs and must have peace before business can be prosperous. Elect Grant and we may expect peace, quiet and protection everywhere. Elect Seymour and Blair and we may expect what they promise us, rebel rule and strife, and heavier taxation.

☞The Chairman of the Republican County Committee assures us that the townships are being thoroughly canvassed for every voter. He has received the return from several townships; but it is important that he should receive the full return from all.

TICKETS READY.—The Union Republican county tickets complete, are now printed and ready for distribution at the GLOBE office. Friends who may be in town from the country districts will please call and get a supply.

☞Seymour and Blair's Southern Rebel friends threaten war if Grant and Colfax should be elected. We don't think the rebels would be anxious to see our "boys" again.

Two Credible Witnesses.

Ex-Governor Perry and Gen. Wade Hampton, both of South Carolina, and both delegates to the New York Convention, on their return made their report to their constituents. Governor Perry, in a letter to a Democratic meeting at Columbia, said:

"There was no difference of opinion on any subject between the Northern and Southern delegates."

Of course not. As the leaders of the Democracy north sympathised with the leaders of the same party south while the latter were fighting with all their might against the Government, why should they not fraternize now?

"They were united as a band of patriots," says the Governor. Of course he means just such patriots as followed the Confederate flag—"that dear old flag," as they still call it down South. Governor Perry continues:

"The southern delegates determined to be reticent in the Convention, and take no prominent part in its proceeding; while northern delegates said to them, 'on the subject of your peculiar grievance and oppressions, draw your own platform, and make it as strong as you please, and we will endorse it.'"

In this, Governor Perry's testimony is fully corroborated by that of his colleague, Wade Hampton, who said in his address to the ratification meeting in Charleston:

"We [that is the rebels] were met with extreme cordiality. They [that is the northern democracy] said they were willing to give us everything we desired; but we of the south must remember that they had a great fight to make, and it would not be policy to place upon the platform that which would engender prejudice at the North."

We can use no epithet strong enough to characterize all this. It was in effect saying:—"We are willing to give you everything you desire; but don't tell the people how much we are ready to do for you; for even in our own party there is some lingering prejudice in favor of the old flag. Don't ask us to say that secession and rebellion were altogether right. You know we think so, but it is not policy to say so. We must practice a little hypocrisy; for such are the prejudices at the North in favor of the old government and flag, that the party cannot be kept together unless we can keep them deluded." Hampton then goes on with his narrative of the fabrication of the democratic platform:

"I said I would take the resolutions if they would allow me to add but three words, which you will find embodied in the platform. I added: 'And we declare that the Reconstruction Acts are revolutionary, unconstitutional and void.' When I proposed that, every member of the Committee—the warmest men in it were the men of the North—came forward and said they would carry it out to the end."

There it is. Governor Perry's testimony is fully sustained. The platform is of rebel origin; and the firing upon Sumter was not more revolutionary than are those words dictated by Wade Hampton, and so cordially accepted by the entire Convention.

Now suppose Seymour and Blair should be elected, does it not inevitably follow that by the same vote the country has decreed that certain laws, solemnly enacted by Congress in strict accordance with the forms of the Constitution, and under which seven States are restored to the Union with regularly organized governments, are "unconstitutional and void?" Who is to carry this decree into effect? As to this question we are not left in the dark, for Frank Blair, in his letter to Broadhead, declares that the President elect must trample these laws into the dust.

What then? Of course those States, when the laws restoring them to the Union are declared to be void and are trampled into the dust, will be again thrown out of the Union, their governments abolished, and a state of absolute anarchy must necessarily follow. Then, indeed, as one of the Southern orators expressed it, "all for which the South fought will be won." The Union will be dissolved and the Government wrecked and abolished, the very end which the Southern Democracy fought so desperately to accomplish. Is it the purpose of the Northern Democracy, after all, to give them the victory? It matters not what the voter may intend, but every vote cast for that ticket will be all that one man can do to give the rebel party "everything for which they fought."—Pittsburg Gazette.

There is a couple in Troy who have been courting over twenty years. Regular twice a week, rain or shine, blow or calm, the front door opens and in pops the little man for an evening chat. Fifteen years ago they were reported "engaged;" now the neighbors doubt whether he has yet popped the question.

GOD SAVE THE COMMONWEALTH.

PROCLAMATION.—NOTICE OF GENERAL ELECTION
TO BE HELD ON TUESDAY, OCTOBER 13th, 1868.

Pursuant to an act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled "An Act relating to the elections of this Commonwealth," approved the second day of July, 1839, I, JAMES F BATHURST, High Sheriff of the county of Huntingdon, Pennsylvania, do hereby make known and give notice to the electors of the county aforesaid, that an election will be held in the said county of Huntingdon, on the 2d Tuesday after the first Monday of October, (being the 13th day of OCTOBER,) at which time State, District and County officers will be elected, to wit:

One person to fill the office of Auditor General of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

One person to fill the office of Surveyor General of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

One person to represent the counties of Blair, Mifflin, Cambria and Huntingdon, in Congress of the United States.

Two persons to represent the counties of Huntingdon, Juniata and Mifflin, in the House of Representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ayer's
Hair Vigor,
For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhoea, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

Mr. Robert Waring, living in this borough, says the Tyrone Herald, while digging a well, found a large piece of a log at the depth of twenty-four feet, imbedded in blue clay and pine leaves, immediately under which was found gravel, such as is generally found at the bottom of running streams. Killed by a Horse.

Mr. Jacob Shaffer, residing near McConnellstown, this county, was found dead in his bed on Tuesday afternoon last, with ugly cuts and bruises about his head and face. It is supposed that he had been lying there since the preceding Sunday evening. He had been taking his horses to the field, where it is thought that he was thrown off and kicked or tramped by one of them. Mr. Shaffer has been living alone for some months past, and the neighbors were only apprised that something was wrong when they saw his horses running loose on Tuesday. Mr. Shaffer was in town on Saturday evening, and his sudden death surprised his relatives and acquaintances, and the manner in which he was hurt, at first led to the suspicion that he was murdered, but further investigation by a jury of inquest made these facts groundless. Mr. Shaffer is the same who not many months ago was swindled by some Jew peddlers.

The boiler was in good condition, having been only two years in use, and was made by Ross Wimer of Baltimore. The engine had just came out of the repair shop at Saxton. The engineer at the time of the explosion, was engaged in cooling a hot pin in the front part of the engine.

NEW YORK, September 12.—The steamer Guiding Star, from Aspinwall brings the following:

On the 13th of August a terrible earthquake visited the cities along the coast of Peru and Ecuador, whereby thirty-two thousand lives were lost, and property valued at three hundred millions of dollars was destroyed. A rumbling sound preceded the earthquake, and the sea was terribly agitated and flooded the land for a great distance.

Arequipa, a city of 35,000 inhabitants, passed away, scarcely a vestige was left. Only four hundred lives were lost here.

Arica, a town of 25,000 inhabitants, was also destroyed, having not a house standing; five hundred perished here.

The tidal waves forty feet high rolled with terrific roar on the shore, carrying ships farther on land than ever before known.

MARRIED,

On the 3d of Sept. by Rev. J. A. De Moyer, Mr. THOS. M. LOGAN, of Cumminsville, to Miss MARY L. RAMSEY, of Manorhill.

DIED,

On Thursday morning, Sept., 8, '68 Mrs. HOOPER, wife of Thomas Hooper, near Schoolville.

Mrs. Hooper in the morning apparently was in good health; eat her breakfast and died in a few minutes after. Truly "in the midst of life we are in death."

In Tallahassee, Florida, of typhoid fever and jaundice, WILLIAM T. HAMILTON, aged 25 years, 2 months and 19 days.

We are sorry to record the death of so fine, amiable and intelligent young man as the deceased. He was born in Franklinville, Huntingdon County, where his parents still reside. When 20 years of age he graduated at Duff's Mercantile College, Pittsburg, Pa., with the highest honors—won the esteem of the Faculty of that renowned Institution by his close application to study.

He was a clerk in the Quartermasters Department at Murfreesboro, Nashville and Augusta, Ga., at different times; was also promoted to a clerkship in the Internal Revenue Department in South Carolina under General Rollins. March 13th 1868, upon recommendation of his excellency D. S. Walker, Provisional Governor of Florida, he was appointed Notary Public of the State of Florida, by order of Gen. Meade. He proved himself a thorough business man, as a citizen his department was such as to win the respect of all who knew him. As a companion he was kind and genial in his intercourse with us. As a public officer the State in which he labored has sustained an irreparable loss in his death and the community a kind and useful citizen.

He held the office of Notary Public at the time of his death Though he died from home and in a Southern clime, yet we have assurance that he had many friends that did all that could possibly be done for him, yet "when Christ commands we must obey."

"None knew him but to love him,
Nor named him but to praise."

Friend and companion, having fallen, rest in peace. S. L. K.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

PREDISPOSING CAUSES OF DISEASE.—The causes of disease are general and particular, affecting one or many persons Now, as the condition of the body is easily disposed under a variety of circumstances to the action of disease, the importance of MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS as a means of combatting and overthrowing the predisposing cause is apparent. It is an invaluable antidote for the human system that is unfortunately affected with any epidemic virus; and such is its wonderful resistent power, that it effectually protects the physique against the evil tendency of an impoisoned atmosphere, or any morbid influence which predisposes the body to the reception of disease. It is, therefore, the true remedy for everyone, whose situation or surroundings are not favorable to the preservation of the health. Sold everywhere.

Juniata, Saturday 19th, Bell Crown School House.
The examination will commence at 9 o'clock, A. M.
Teachers who are tardy in attendance need not expect admission into the class.
No teacher need apply for examination who will not submit to an examination in all the branches required by law.
Persons who are known to the Superintendent to use intoxicating drinks as a beverage, or to be of immoral character will not be examined. Those unknown to the Superintendent and directors must produce satisfactory evidence of good moral character.
Applicants are expected to be examined in the districts in which they apply for Schools. A certificate from the proper directors will be required before they can enter the class.
Directors are earnestly urged to be present at the examinations, and to make their selections of teachers, as far as practicable, on these occasions. Such a course would have a strong tendency to induce teachers to attend and prevent them from trying to evade a public examination. It would also relieve directors from much trouble in procuring teachers. It is hoped that those directors who favor the measure will give the requisite notices in their districts.
The special attention of directors is invited to the article headed "Teachers Salaries" found on page 46, Aug. No. Pennsylvania School Journal. It will be seen by the article referred to that the State Superintendent suggests that teachers be paid according to their proficiency, and according to their actual success in teaching. The article is most cordially commended.
The public are desired and respectfully invited to attend the examinations, but teachers who do not come to be examined but expect to be examined at some other place in the county are not invited, and if they will consult their own interests they will not attend.
D. F. TUSSEY, County Superintendent,

SPECIAL NOTICE.

TO THE LADIES.—Do you really intend to cease wearing the beautiful styles now so prevalent, or dress less elegantly, because the rebel Jeff. Davis, was captured in Fashionable Female attire? One moment's calm reflection will surely serve to change your rash resolve. The angels had too much good sense to lay aside their pure chaste robes of white, because they had for a time served to hide the deformities of that Prince of Rebels, the Devil. Can you err in following the example of Angels? Then having made up your minds that you will continue to dress tastefully regardless of rebel acts, do not forget to call at the store of the subscribers, who will be happy at all times to furnish you with such articles of dress as you may desire. Urge your fathers, husbands, brothers, neighbors and children to visit the same store. They can here be suited in good articles of Boots, Shoes, Clothing Material, Hats, Caps, Queensware and a general assortment of Groceries, on as reasonable terms as at any House in town. Store on Southeast corner of the Diamond, Huntingdon, Pa

IF A HUMBUG,

What a wonder
That the doors
Are open wide;
Ever since the
First of August
Thousands have Pain Paint applied.
Those who lie,
Or call it humbug,
Are the doctors,
Not acquaint;
For they always
Have been jealous
When their patients
Use Pain Paint.
Pile up facts
As high as mountains,
Flash the truth
Before their eyes,
But the cry
Is always humbug,
Men of silence
Full of lies.

People know that liniments composed of Cayenne pepper, turpentine, hartshorn, ether, &c., will produce inflammation and pain. To purchase such trash to stop Pain and Inflammation is ridiculous. Fire will not stop heat; a dumb brute shuns the heat, and knows enough to wade in a pond of water, when wounded, to reduce, cool, and cure Inflammation and Fever.

Pimps and gamblers try to look honest, but folks can read the face too plainly. Some try to persuade the ignorant that pills, physic, &c., cleanse the blood, purge the system, and do a hundred other things equally absurd. Everybody knows that it is false, and that no medicine can purify or increase a drop of blood. Food makes blood, bone, and muscle, and is the staff of Life. Every dose of medicine swallowed is rejected, and hurried out of the system as quick as possible. It is an enemy; yea, a deadly foe. Constipation, ill health, and weakness, are the result of dosing, dosing, dosing the stomach.—The living system has enough to do without working herself to death in expelling and kicking out the pernicious nostrums poured down the throat. Food she welcomes when she needs it; yea, asks for it. Let pill-makers and physic venders stop eating food, and see how long they can subsist on their blood-purifying, invigorating, health-giving medicines and cordials. What humbug is more transparent? A dog would feel so insulted, if offered a dose, he would curl his tail downward in scorn, and run away in utter disgust. All physical pain arises from inflammation. Put out the fire and you stop pain absolutely. You can stop pain as easy as you can quench fire with water. WOLCOTT'S PAIN PAINT subdues inflammation, heat, and fever one hundred times faster than ice. Thousands have had a practical test of its merits at the very moment of most extreme pain, and they can testify that it has not failed in doing its work. It is simple; it is harmless; it has no stain; it gives no smart; it is for sale by Druggists everywhere; and it is tested free of cost at 170 CHATHAM SQUARE, N. Y., and 622 Arch Street, Philadelphia.

My wife had an ulcer on her leg for thirteen years, caused by varicose veins, ulceration extended from her ankle to her knee, some places eating away to the bone. I have employed over twenty physicians at vast expense during this period. But all attempts at cure proved utterly abortive until I tried Dr. Wolcott's Pain Paint, which the doctors told me was a humbug. But humbug or not, it has done the work completely in less than one month, removing the pain at the first application. I kept her leg wet with Pain Paint constantly until healed. I wish we had more humbugs as useful as Dr. Wolcott's Pain Paint. I am well known in this city, any person who wants to make further inquiry will call at 101 West Street, New York, at the Hanover House, of which I am the proprietor, and I think I can satisfy them as to the benefit derived by the use of Pain Paint.

May 12, 1868. PETER MINCK.

I am selling Wolcott's Pain Paint and Annihilator, and it certainly gives satisfaction to my customers.

D. F. COLES, Druggist, Rahway, N. J.

I am selling more of Wolcott's Pain Paint, than any other Patent Medicine. C. N. CRITTENTON, Wholesale Druggist, No. 7 6th Ave., New York.

I sell more of Wolcott's Pain Paint than all the other patent medicines combined and I keep a full supply of all that have any demand.
